RESTAURANT

ABOUT

Situated in the elegant Victorian building on the corner of Mayfair's Mount Street and South Audley Street, The Audley offers guests three distinct experiences: The Audley Public House, a traditional London pub on street level; Mount St. Restaurant, a modern London restaurant on the first floor; and three floors housing four beautifully designed spaces, each with its own story and available for private hire.

Built in 1888, The Audley was designed by Thomas Verity, the man who designed the exterior of the pavilion at Lord's Cricket Ground. Paris-based Luis Laplace, behind many Hauser & Wirth spaces, was the lead architect on the restoration project.

Executive Head Chef Jamie Shears – previously of 45 Jermyn St. and Wolfgang Puck's CUT at 45 Park Lane – has created a distinct menu, inspired by the culinary history of London, with a contemporary twist. Working closely with farmers, growers and makers to secure the freshest seasonal produce from around the UK with an emphasis on sustainability. This includes our farm in Somerset where we source our beef and lamb, alongside home-grown foraged produce.

Art is at the heart of the building, with The Audley acting as a showcase for extraordinary and important works, alongside specially commissioned site-specific art interventions created by Hauser & Wirth's roster of globally celebrated artists, including the late Phyllida Barlow in The Audley Public House, Rashid Johnson in Mount St. Restaurant and Anj Smith in the Games Room turret.

Over 200 pieces of art feature throughout The Audley, including works by Andy Warhol, Henri Matisse, Lucian Freud, Philip Guston, Peter Fischli and David Weiss.

THE ITALIAN ROOM & THE ITALIAN BAR

Resplendent in Venetian design, the Italian rooms feature a private dining room for up to 12 guests, and a separate bar with lounge seating, that can be booked for pre or post-dinner drinks.

Guests are greeted by carved wooden doors inspired by Palazzo interiors, while the floors are edged with Italian Verde Alpi green marble, covered in the centre by green carpeting. Both rooms have classic pelmets and curtain boxes, evoking the interiors of a Venetian Palazzo. Italian works of art line the walls, including Giorgio de Chirico's "La Muse" (1974).

Located on the second floor, the Italian rooms can be used together with the Swiss Room, which includes a dining table seating 14 guests.

THE SWISS ROOM

A celebration of Switzerland's rich history of art and design, the Swiss Room is located on the second floor, with a spacious dining room that seats up to 14 guests.

The floor is the highlight of the room – inspired by the Davos-born artist Sophie Taeuber-Arp (1889–1943); the floor is made of sycamore wood and each plank has been individually stained by artisan Ian Harper, to resemble a watercolour painting.

This elegant room has lacquer panelling, dark oak wood doors and walls lined in linen. A selection of artwork by Nicolas Party and Pipilotti Rist adorn the walls, while floor-to-ceiling windows provide views over Mount Street and South Audley Street.

The room can be used in conjunction with the Italian rooms, located on the same floor, which includes a dining room seating 12 guests and a lounge area and bar.

41-43 MOUNT ST.

THE SCOTTISH ROOM

Inspired by the history of the Highlands and our sister property, the Fife Arms, the Scottish Room, located on the third floor, is the largest of the private rooms, seating up to 28 guests.

Bringing Scotland to the heart of Mayfair, the Scottish Room showcases Jacobite history, as well as traditional Scottish crafts including a dramatic antler chandelier, designed by Laplace and created by Gareth Guy of the McLean Horn Shop in Braemar, which sits above a hand-carved 9-metre Scottish oak table featuring 38 unique Jacobite cockades in memory of the Glen Coe Massacre of 1692. This bespoke table, hand-carved chairs and glassfronted cabinet were all crafted by joinery artisan Kelvin Murray at Character Joinery. Weaver and designer Araminta Campbell has created an exclusive custom tartan in three colourways using pigments from natural plant dyes, a highly valued ancient skill.

THE GAMES ROOM

At the very top of The Audley, under the turret, is a clandestine enclave: the Games Room. An intimate and private space, with a comfortable lounge area, and a private bar with bar seating. As befits a room designed for latenight soirées, the décor and atmosphere is dark and subdued, with deep red walls, dark lacquered joinery, dark glass tops, sumptuous materials and subdued golden lighting.

Laplace designed the rug in the main room as an homage to Louise Bourgeois (1911–2010). He worked closely with Jerry Gorovoy, Bourgeois's long-time assistant, to remain faithful to her signature style, and Laplace's design was bought to life by artisans in Nepal.

In the turret is 'Octopia', by British artist Anj Smith (b. 1978), as commissioned by Hauser & Wirth. Smith's artwork responds intuitively to accommodate the architectural character of the space. Exploring subjectivity and subversion, the floating organic forms evoke the inhabitation of a female body.

Located on the fourth floor, the Games Room can accommodate up to 20 guests, standing, including the lounge area.
